In the event that several classes have been missed and students are unable to meet course objectives they should consult with the instructor and academic advisor about course extensions (see the Incomplete Course policy) or a course withdrawal (see Course Withdrawal policy).

Medical documentation may be required in cases of serious illness or medical conditions which impact a student's ability to participate in courses for an extended period.

In the event of a chronic medical condition or disability, students are strongly advised to contact the Dean of Students and/or the Office of Disability Services to explore potential accommodations.

Authorized Absence Activities

As previously stated, in the event that several classes have been missed and students are unable to meet course objectives they should consult with the instructor and academic advisor about course extensions (see the Incomplete Course policy) or a course withdrawal (see Course Withdrawal policy).

Each instructor will excuse students from class for authorized activities (see below) and provide an opportunity to complete missed exams, quizzes, and other required work.

Students are responsible for all material covered in class and must work with each individual instructor as soon as they return to complete any required work.

Missed required work may be replaced at the discretion of the instructor.

Authorized activities and required documentation are defined as:

- Participation in Division 1 athletic games and associated travel (excluding practices);
- Appearances required as part of a Saint Louis University investigation/hearing;
- Short-term service with the military and/or First Responder (see the Military Policy for additional information and notification timeline)
- Legal obligation (e.g jury duty, required court appearance);

Official notification of required appearance.
Religious Holiday Observance

2. The Office of the Provost, in consultation with Campus Ministry a discretion.

Students in personal or academic distress and/or who may be specifically experiencing challenges such as securing food or difficulty navigating campus resources, and who believe this may affect their performance in the course, are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office (deanofstudents@slu.edu or 314-977-9378) for support. Furthermore, please notify the instructor if you are comfortable in doing so, as this will enable them to assist you with finding the resources you may need.

COURSE EVALUATION

As part of class participation, during the last week of the semester students will be reminded to complete an on-line course evaluation. Students will be notified when screens will be accessible for students to submit the evaluation.

VI. EVALUATION

A. Methods

Two quizzes (which will be announced days in advance), class participation, midterm and final examinations will be used in evaluating the performance of students.
