

		reinforced 8. Thesis research development and defense: introduced, developed, reinforced, achieved	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3. Formulate and present a treatment plan</li> <li>4. Perform the treatment</li> <li>5. Follow-up with the patient at subsequent examinations to assess outcomes</li> </ol> Case presentations throughout the residency program measures resident clinical performance indirectly. Grades (as indirect measures) for each case are awarded. American Board of Endodontics objective grading system is used to evaluate the quality of clinical treatment.
--	--	--	--	--

2 Graduates of the program are expected to have a foundational knowledge of endodontics. Foundational knowledge includes

1. Conducting a comprehensive clinical examination
2. Prioritizing endodontic

ee

-
8. Endodontic retreatment
  9. Endodontic surgery
  10. Endodontic revascularization
  11. Vital pulp therapy
  12. Comprehensive knowledge of the endodontic literature
  13. Endodontic practice management

