Program Learning Outcomes	Curriculum Mapping	Assessment Methods	Use of Assessment Data
What do you expect all students who complete the program to know, or be able to do?	Where is the outcome learned/assessed (courses, internships, student teaching, clinical, etc.)?	How do students demonstrate their performance of the program learning outcomes? How does the program measure student performance? Distinguish your direct measures from indirect measures.

1. It is not recommended to try and assess (in depth) all of the program learning outcomes every semester. It is best practice to plan out when each outcome will be assessed and focus on 1 or 2 each semester/academic year. Describe the responsibilities, timeline, and the process for implementing this assessment plan.

The materials and artifacts for the outcomes will be collected on an annual basis. The outcomes will be evaluated on a year cycle. See table in 3a. Year 1 is defined as the ~~2016~~2017 academic year.

2. Please explain how these assessment efforts are coordinated with Madrid (courses and/or program)?

These assessment efforts are not coordinated with any other courses or programs in Madrid. There are no(h)-4(yyn)9.1(re)918(it)

How students were included in the process and/or how student input was gathered and incorporated into the assessment plan.

This year at the annual retreat for graduate students invited students to offer opinions about the assessment. Going forward graduate students will have the opportunity to provide feedback and make suggestions regarding the assessment of the outcomes. They will have an opportunity to review the report and offer their advice and experience as it relates to the learning outcomes.

b. What external sources were consulted in the development of this assessment plan?

Exam 1: Rubric

The first paper focuses on the ability of the student to identify and formulate a researchable problem.
	Developing	Competent	Exemplary	Points
	1 point	2 points	3 points
A. The paper provides sufficient background to demonstrate that there is in fact a problem. The author presents a succinct but thorough summary of anomalies, contradictions, and issue importance as they occur in both past and current research literature relevant to the problem area. The reader should be able to clearly answer the question, "Why study this?"
B. Flowing from the background information, a problem statement specifically describes the gap in knowledge that the research will fill. Theoretical and empirical terms must be clearly articulated and explained. From within the larger problem space, the precise issue the research targets must be readily apparent.
C. The theoretical/conceptual framework that anchors the problem is explicated sufficiently so that the paper demonstrates knowledge of the field or subfield the student is addressing.
D. The policy implications of the research are articulated and anchored in the appropriate policy literature.
E. The method for researching this problem is clearly stated and justification is provided for why the method is appropriate.

Exam 2: Rubric

The second paper focuses on the ability of the student to identify literature relevant to the topic addressed; to critique the existing research and clearly articulate the strengths and weaknesses of the studies relevant to the student's own project demonstrate how the current project fits into the scholarly flow of research in the area
	Developing	Competent	Exemplary	Points
	1 point	2 points	3 points
A. Knowledge of the most recent scholarship in the area of concern.
B. Knowledge of historical scholarship relevant to the topic.
C. An understanding of the theoretical and conceptual literature linked to the research being undertaken.
D. Ability to link the project to ongoing policy discussions and debates both at the theoretical and applied levels.
E. Clear articulation of the contribution of the dissertation.
